Documents or Information required

Before your claim can be finalized, you must:

1. Remember to provide us with the telephone number for all of your employers.

Record(s) of Employment

Submit the "Employee's copy Part 1 or Fisher's copy Part 1" of your Record(s) of employment (unless your employer is submitting your Record of employment electronically) from:

List of Employers

Name	First Day	Last Day
1893878 ONT INC	March 16, 2026	July 19, 2026
2617948 ONT INC	December 1, 2025	January 31, 2026

You can view your records of employment that were submitted electronically by your employer via My Service Canada Account.

Failure to submit any required documents or information may create a delay in processing your claim and may affect your entitlement to benefits.

If you did not already add these documents to your application, you can upload them later using My Service Canada Account.

If necessary, mail any documents or additional information to:

Service Canada Centre
London
PO Box 2602
Mississauga ON L4T0B1

Or deliver them in person to the Service Canada Centre where you live

Electronic forms if required

Download and print a blank copy of:

- Request for Record of Employment

<https://catalogue.servicecanada.gc.ca/content/EForms/en/Detail.html?Form=INS3166> or obtain one from a Service Canada Centre or call 1-800-206-7218.

Additional Notes

If you submitted any other documents while completing your application, you can view them in My Service Canada Account. Keep the original documents for 6 years in case we need them.

To prove your eligibility and receive any payment you may be entitled to, you are required to complete bi-weekly reports. Failure to do so may result in a loss of entitlement and payment.

What's next?

- Within 5 to 10 business days, you will receive a benefit statement by mail containing your access code. Access the instructions on how to complete your reports with our Internet Reporting Service or our Telephone Reporting Service.
- If you had an EI claim within the last month, you will not receive a new access code in the mail. You can use the same access code that you previously used to complete your bi-weekly reports and access your EI claim information.
- After you apply for EI benefits, you must start completing bi-weekly reports using the Internet or Telephone Reporting Service as soon as you receive your access code in the mail. If you are eligible for benefits, no payments can be issued to you until you have submitted bi-weekly reports.
